River Road School Design Meeting Sept. 25

Dear River Road Neighbors,

The design process for the new River Road/El Camino del Río Elementary School building is underway. The second of two public meetings is coming up on September 25.

The new school is currently scheduled to break ground in 2015 and open in fall 2016. This schedule depends on having the location and configuration of the new school building finalized in the coming weeks.

Neighbors are cordially invited to attend and provide input. We hope to see you there!
